Tailor-made holidays to New Zealand - land of the long white cloud

Ultimate New Zealand Self-Drive

February 2014 - February 2015

New Zealand has it all. From snow-capped mountains and rocky coasts to lush rainforests and active volcanoes, almost every eye-popping landscape imaginable is packed into its two islands.

- Day 1/2: Fly UK To New Zealand
- Day 3: Auckland - Collect car hire
- Day 4: Auckland – Rotorua (370km) Travel south over the Bombay Hills and through the lush Waikato pasturelands. At Waitomo, tour the subterranean caves by boat. Travel across the Waikato River and the Mamaku Hills to the famous geothermal centre of Rotorua.
- Day 5: Rotorua (30 km). Sightseeing tour. Your package includes admission to the Te Puia Thermal Reserve, Rainbow Springs, the Agrodome Leisure Park, a gondola cable car ride to the Skyline Skyrides complex, and the Polynesian Spa.
- Day 6: Rotorua - Wellington (465 km) - Travel south via Lake Taupo, passing through the World Heritage Tongariro National Park, where volcanic mountains dominate the scenery.
- Day 7: Wellington (50km) - Day at leisure
- Day 8: Wellington - Picton - Christchurch (370km) Return your car prior to joining to the Interislander Ferry to cruise the Cook Strait. Connect with the Tranz Coastal train which journeys via Kaikoura Christchurch.
- Day 9: Christchurch - Greymouth (250 km) This morning transfer to the train station. Take the Tranz Alpine Express through the rugged Southern Alps to Greymouth, a journey revealing breathtaking views (Includes self-drive passengers). On arrival, collect your rental car.
- Day 10: Greymouth to West Coast Glaciers (205km) A full day to continue southwards, following the coast to reach Westland National Park and enjoy the magnificent glaciers. This afternoon, enjoy a guided walk to the Glacier Terminal.
- Day 11: West Coast Glaciers to Queenstown (420km) Today, see some of the most beautiful scenery in New Zealand. Travel over the Haast Pass and through the silver beech forests of Mt Aspiring National Park, past Lake Wanaka and along the Kawarau Gorge to Queenstown.
- Day 12: Queenstown - Day at Leisure
- Day 13: Queenstown - Milford Sound - Te Anau (420km) Follow Lake Wakatipu via Kingston, arriving in Te Anau for a morning tea break. Follow the shores of Lake Te Anau before entering the Eglinton Valley. Pass the mirror lakes and travel through the avenue of the disappearing mountain. A fascinating launch cruise to Bowen Falls and Mitre Peak is included. Later today return by coach to Te Anau.
- Day 14: Te Anau - Invercargill (160km) This morning depart for Invercargill, the southernmost city of New Zealand.
